TUESDAY, JULY 28, 1903.

The average daily circulation of the Barre Daily Times for the week ending Saturday was copies, the largest paid circulation of any daily paper in this section.

Are You In It?

The Daily Times carries considerably more advertising than any other daily in Washington county. It gets higher rates for it, too, because The Times has the largest circulation. Is your advertisement in The Times?

The Times originates, the others follow, excepting only when it comes to telling circulation daily to all. The Times circulates books, press room and all else open to your inspection.

The two villes in Indiana, Evansville and Danville, have not added to their reputation, in the least, by recent occurrences within their borders.

Every newspaper man in Vermont will be pleased to learn that Arthur Rogers, the editor and publisher of the Montpelier Journal and Watchman, is able to be at his desk again after nearly six months confinement to the house. Mr. Rogers has had a serious case of it, but he returns to the harness with as little a per as ever.

Those West Burke young ladies who became stage struck to such a degree that they stayed with two traveling actors who chanced to hang their hats in the quiet little town, were treated to a realistic bit of acting when they returned home, such that they will probably bear in mind for future reference. The glimmer of the footlights appears to still have a charm for the susceptible.

The Burlington News submits a few plain facts on the next gubernatorial election, and tell what kind of a man will be voted for by the people. This includes "a mentality, a mediocrity, a mere respectability, a rich man looking for political honors on the burglar counter, a man 'entitled' to the office by reason of residence in a particular town or county." Which leads one to believe that the News wishes that its rules might be repressive in nature, were such possible.

The United States battleship Kearsarge which has just completed a phenomenal run from Portsmouth, England, to Frenchmen's Bay, Maine, may not be the fastest vessel afloat but it has been demonstrated that the best is the fastest warship in existence. The trip took only a little over nine days, and Capt. Houghill thinks that under more favorable conditions the time might have been materially lessened. The Kearsarge's fast run brings to mind the more famous one of that Vermonter, Admiral Clark, in the ship Oregon.

WHAT LYNCHING IS.

A desire for lynching is the natural of the baser and the basest instincts in man and it marks a lage in civilization. This, in brief, is the only explanation for the despicable epidemic which is now sweeping over this country and which promises, uncheck'd, to assume such

ABOUT THE STATE.

Items of Interest Collected From Our Exchanges.

The Ryegate and Wellsville dairymen's association will hold a fair at South Ryegate Sept. 9 and 10.

Five boys escaped Saturday night from the Industrial school at Vergennes. One of them lives in Burlington and one in Winooski.

A petition in bankruptcy has been filed by Edward W. Barry, a farmer of Brattleboro, who has liabilities of $1,174.14 and assets of $925, of which $245 are claimed exempt.

Mrs. Seisan Gilligan, 20, who recently died at her home in West Barnet, left $600 to each of the two Presbyterian churches in Barnet and $1,000 to Peacham.

Miss Morris of Bellows made a record last week nearly equaling that recently accomplished by Gen. Miles by her horseback ride of 65 miles to the Eagle Hotel. She is an accomplished horse-woman and rides man fashion.

The annual camp meeting of the St. Johnsbury district will be held at the grove at Lyndonville August 24-29. Besides the regular pastors in the district, Misses Avery and Bryant, evangelists, who have been working in the district for over a year, will assist in the services.

John W. Perkins, proprietor of the American, Vergennes, who is under $300 bail charged with the illegal selling of intoxicating liquor, is reported to have left town Friday evening. His case was to have been heard Friday morning but owing to the absence of his counsel, Henry Ballard of Burlington, it was continued until today.

The funeral party accompanying the body of Silas L. Griffith of Danby, left San Diego, Cal., today for Vermont. They expect to reach home Saturday, August 1. The funeral will be held in Danby at the Congregational church, Tuesday, August 4, at 2 o'clock in the afternoon. There was a large attendance of friends and a handsome display of flowers. The officiating clergymen were the Rev. Mr. Crabtree, the Rev. Mr. Abbott and the Rev. Mr. Vroomer.

First Lieut. John A. Gunn of St. Johnsbury, has resigned his position with Co. D, 1st Inf., V. N. G. His resignation has been accepted and he has been granted an honorable discharge. Lieutenant Gunn entered the service in 1891 and has been promoted through all the offices to his present position. He was an efficient officer of Co. D during the war with Spain. Adj't. W. H. Gilmore has ordered a special election to fill the vacancy, to be held at the Armory Saturday evening, July 25. Lieut.-Col. C. M. Scott has been designated as the officer to preside at the election.

THINGS THEATRICAL.

Owen Wister's book, "The Virginian," is in the hands of the dramatist. J. E. Dodson will enact the role of Simonides in next season's "Don-Hur" production.

Nance O'Neill is to appear under the management of Frank Percy for a term of years.

The play in which Walter Whiteside is to be seen this evening was written by a British army officer.

Richard Gauntlett, who wrote "A Message From Mars" for Charles Hawtrey, married Miss Marie Dressler's only sister.

Mme. Patti has been three married— to a French marquis, to an Italian commander and to a Swedish baron. She is sixty years old.

Among the French players there is a tradition that the great Rachel caught the cold which ended in her death in the drift dressing rooms of a Parisian theater.

Mrs. Bernard-Bowen, the English actress, who is the leading exponent of grande dame roles now on the London stage, is a goddaughter of William Makepeace Thackeray.

CHURCH AND CLERGY.

Rev. A. B. Shultz, rector of the Church of the Redeemer, Boston, is an artist as well as a priest. He earned enough money painting the past winter to afford a summer in the galleries of the old world.

The Rev. John Krauske of Chicago is digging the foundation for a new church. Some of his parishioners help him after business hours. When the church is completed Andrew Carnegie will donate an organ.

Rev. L. Martin A. Borde is assistant pastor of the Every Day church, Boston, and during the summer months will have complete charge of its work. She is a woman of middle age and very dignified appearance.

The Rev. M. P. Hunt of St. Joseph, Mo., has been elected president of Galena college, and the trustees feel sure that they have chosen a man of strong convictions and courage. Mr. Hunt once ran for governor of Kentucky on the Prohibition ticket.

Water Moccasin.

"I never could understand," began the cheerful idiot, who had just been listening to a dissertation on poisonous snakes.
"Never could understand what?" put in the rubberneck.
"I never could fully understand why a rubber snake wasn't entitled to be called a water moccasin."—Baltimore American.
